V1

F C F C

May our sons in youth, be firm in their roots

May our houses be homes, may our wells overflow

May our peace increase ten-thousand fold

CHORUS 1

May we slay deceit, rise from defeat

F C G C

May You keep us from captivity

May our walls be strong, if we sing Your songs

If we sing Your praises all day long

INSTRUMENTAL

May You raise the roads, all the old dry bones

Of this sun-burned city, that we call our home

If we quickly come where injustice is done

If we spend ourselves for the ones You love

CHORUS 2

May we loose the chains, may we break the bonds

May we break our bread with the hungry ones

May we not pass by when the naked cry

For a coat or a quarter or a little bit of time

May our sons in youth, be firm in their roots

May our daughters be pillars in the palace of truth

If we quickly come where injustice is done

If we spend ourselves for the ones You love
