G/D D G/D D
May our sons in youth, be firm in their roots

May our houses be homes, may our wells overflow
May our peace increase ten-thousand fold

VERSE 2

May You raise the roads, all the old dry bones
Of this sun-burned city, that we call our own
If we quickly come where injustice is done
If we spend ourselves for the ones You love

CHORUS 2

May we loose the chains, may we break the bonds
May we break our bread with the hungry ones
May we not pass by when the naked cry
For a coat or a quarter or a little bit of time

May our sons in youth, be firm in their roots
May our daughters be pillars, in the palace of truth
If we quickly come where injustice is done
If we spend ourselves for the ones You love
